nearest town while the townsfolk watched their curious behavior.

To save the brake linings on steep downgrades in the mountains, they dragged saplings tied to their tow rope from the rear axle.

At one point, they found themselves without a spare tire following a blow-out. Pulling into the nearest farm yard, they prevailed upon the owner to give them enough oats to stuff the tire. Burlap was then used to wrap around the puncture, but the drivers soon found they were scattering oats for the next hundred miles.

These are just some of the tales John S. Hammond II will tell about in words and pictures of the historical 1903 transcontinental drive by his father, Eugene I. Hammond, a Mattapoisett native, and Lester L. Whitman.

The two men made the trip in a five-horsepower, one-cylinder curved-dash Oldsmobile light runabout, spanning 4,325 miles from San Francisco to Portland, Maine. They left on July 6 and reached Portland on September 23, 1903.

Sponsored by the Mattapoisett Historical Society, this exciting story will be told in a slide presentation at 7:30 P.M.

Any savings bank can give you 5 1/2 %. Only one gives you free crystal, too.

As of July 1, every savings bank in the country is allowed by law to raise its rate on regular savings and club accounts. The new rate is 5 1/2 %, compounded continuously for an effective annual yield of 5.73%.

At Fairhaven Savings, we're offering you more. Not just the new, higher rate. But free crystal, too. Beautiful French lead crystal.

Here's how:

With your first deposit of $50 or more in a new or existing savings account, you can take your choice of any pair of crystal in the set. Absolutely free. Choose water goblets or tumblers. Wine glasses, cordials or parfait stemware.

Another way to start your collection is to take advantage of our new four-year term, money certificate, which we've just announced. Deposit a minimum of $500 and you can take home a free pair of crystal tumblers or goblets. And the certificate will earn you 7.85% interest compounded continuously for an effective annual yield of 8.28%.*

And if you deposit a minimum of $5,000 in a savings certificate of one year or more, we'll give you a beautiful crystal berry and bowl set.

Completing your collection is easy too. Each time you add another $25 to your account, you can add another crystal pair to your set at these remarkably low prices:

Water, wine, cordial or parfait stemware . . . $6.25 a pair.
High and low tumblers . . . . . $5.25 a pair.

Best of all, this free offer is available with any savings account you choose (except club accounts, NOW accounts, and 6 month Money Market Certificates). Limit one free gift per family please.

So stop in soon. We'll not only give you the new higher interest rate. We'll give you free French lead crystal, too.

*Rates effective July 1 to July 31, 1979. Federal regulations require substantial penalty for withdrawals prior to maturity. Offer subject to cancellation at anytime.

Exorcist of Energy

Editorial - D.C.J.

As he explained for an interminably tedious 1/3 of his so called Energy Speech, President Jimmy Carter has consulted with the American people like the "midnight skulker" of "BC".

The result is a bone chilling prospect. President Carter has let his ship of state drift for the entire period of his command until now. Now, he proposes to jettison the engines to conserve energy. Even if the President is prepared to write off the automobile, he might have done well to consider that villain in the cellar called the oil burner. "Mandatory Economy" for this "devil" already limited to 68 degrees in conscientious homes, is going to be extremely uncomfortable.

We need now what President Carter proposes as the end result of his big energy program. We have needed it ever since he took office. He proposes laws to require Power Plants to burn coal. They might be burning coal already if he had lifted the laws which prevent them from burning coal. He proposes turning shale into oil. Why has nothing been done in this direction in all the time that Carter has been in control? He says this is going to cost a "lot of money". Where is this to come from if the engine which drives the economy is jettisoned?

The "midnight skulker" does well to consult with one or two farmers in Pennsylvania. This looks good as public relations. Heaven help us all however if this consultation is the foundation of the new energy policy. A country like the United States is a delicately balanced and meshed mechanism. Each cog is dependent on impetus from the one meshed with it. I do hope that one of these Pennsylvania consultants told Jimmy that you can't repair a fine watch with a swing of a meat cleaver.

In one area President Carter has acted in the true spirit of the Democratic party. The Democrat loves rationing and Jimmy has asked for that authority. This should endear him to his party faithful.

President Carter said, "The strength that we need will not come from the White House". Well, we will buy that. He continued that it will come from the American people. That remains to be seen because it depends on how much is left after we exorcise that devil in the cellar, in the garage, and the one we try to make a living with.

What we would like to have heard from the President and didn't:

1) That cartels that threaten the world with economic disaster are waging war as surely as if they were firing guns.

2) That he would immediately propose a summit (the President is fond of summits) of all industrial nations to form a united force to break any cartel's power over the production capacity of those nations.

3) That all United States commitments of money to foreign nations would be immediately restudied or suspended until such time as a satisfactory united stand against the cartel was worked out.

4) That an immediate embargo would be enforced to prevent any United States oil from being exported while this country had a shortage of oil.

5) That a massive federal project would be immediately started to produce oil from shale and coal and that the plants to do this would be put up for sale privately when completed to private investors not to include any present oil interests.

6) That American based oil companies owe allegiance to the United States and must act accordingly or be subject to

CALIFORNIA STORM STAIN

SOLID COLOR STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Rich natural tones blend the color and grain of the wood but do not obscure the texture.
- Maximum hiding power in the water repellant finish.
- Cover previously stained surfaces.
- One coat for similar colors or two coats for contrasting colors.
- Deep color penetration — Helps avoid deterioration of wood.
- Mildew resistant and blister resistant on properly prepared surfaces.

SEMI-TRANSPARENT STAINS — Linseed Oil or Urethane Latex

- Natural appearance and texture allows wood to retain its natural beauty without detracting from the bold graining and configurations inherent in wood itself.
- Colors that blend with natural settings and other finishes.
- Penetrating finish helps protect against deterioration of wood.
- Weather gracefully without chipping and peeling.
- Performs better than solid color stains on decks, rails and outdoor furniture.
- Water repellant finish fully protects the natural mellowness of wood from the ravages of changing weather patterns.

BLEACHING STAIN — Transparent Oil Stain

- A natural transparent oil rich stain that quickly produces a uniform silvery gray antique appearance when exposed to natural weathering.
- Designed for use on unfinished wood only and is not recommended for use over painted, stained or sealed surfaces.
- Excellent longevity without blistering or peeling. Retains its natural weathered look throughout the years.

EXHIBITION OF PAINTINGS BY SARAH BROWN

A swish of waves and summer clouds, fields of poppies and daisies, dinghies resting on the beach -- these illusions of summer are the stuff that Sarah Brown's watercolors are made of. Her paintings will be exhibited in the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery of the Marion Art Center from July 20-August 1. (Please note the date - it was misprinted in the MAC Newsletter.)

In addition to beaches and florals, she will be showing a series of more abstract watercolors. The "circle series" some of

MATTAPOISETT GIRLS' SOFTBALL UPDATE

Mattapoisett Recreation dropped a 6-5 heartbreaker to the Livesey Club, reducing their record to two wins and one loss. A 3-run Livesey homer in the last inning ruined the 5-3 lead which Mattapoisett held going into the last frame.

Gretchen Hamer led the way offensively for the locals with a single and a 3-run homer of her own. Debbie Drake chipped in with two hits while pitching a strong, game on defeat. Other batters also contributing base hits were Toni Sylvia, Brenda Poitras, Lois Hottel, Nickie Hamer, Kathy Baggarly and Linda Couto.

HISTORIC PHOTOGRAPHS

THE IMAGE OF THE PAST, a special exhibition of sixty historic photographs of New Bedford and vicinity, will be on view at the New Bedford Whaling Museum from July 18 through September 16.

These photographs have been drawn from the Museum's collection and have been selected by its photo-archivist, Nicholas Whitman, to illustrate the work of the local photographers of the past.

The show begins by illustrating early photographic portraits from 1840 down through the 19th Century. Unusual examples of each process demonstrate the evolution of photography through the daguerreotype, ambrotype, tintype, carte-de-visite and cabinet card.

Unusually fine 8 x 10 contact prints are on exhibit, including the earliest known photograph of New Bedford (1870) taken from the Unitarian Church.

Different life styles of the day are well documented, as well as scenes of the changing city and surrounding area towns. An amusing parade sequence (1866) down William Street, New Bedford, will delight the viewer.

Most of the photographs are by well-known professional photographers (Albert Cook Church, for example), but the amateur or family photographers begins to appear c. 1895, with amusing results.

A series of cyanotypes of blueprints are on exhibit, and the interested visitor may peer through an 1870 stereoscope to view a stereo card for himself.

graphs, and there are two panels of these. Included are some photographs taken by whaling Captain Henry Mandley, Jr., as well as other professional examples.

The Museum is open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. and on Sunday from 1:00 to 5:00 P.M.

PHYSICAL FITNESS EXERCISE PROGRAM

The Greater New Bedford YMCA offers an on-going physical fitness exercise program for women on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings from 9:30-10:30 and Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7:00-8:00. After the exercise program you may swim in our olympic size pool, use the sauna, take part in the women's weight training course, or use the gym for racquetball, volleyball, etc.

The physical fitness program is a professionally supervised course specifically for women. It is diversified, emphasizing continual movement both gentle and vigorous to enhance physical appearance and simply make you feel good.

The weight training is a dynamic program of exercise using resistance. Weight-training has gained in popularity lately since many professional women athletes have discovered its value in enhancing strength, endurance and power. Weight-training tones the body and gives it shape.

his dogged attempts to prove it true, form the basis for the plot of Così fan tutte, an opera by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. The complete opera, fully staged with orchestral accompaniment and directed by renowned maestro Boris Goldovsky, will be performed at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Friday and Saturday, July 20 and 21. The performance is a highlight of the SMU Summer Music Institute and Festival '79, which has drawn about 100 advanced student-musicians from all over the country for a month of study and rehearsal here.

Così fan tutte, which will be presented in the SMU Auditorium at 8 P.M. both nights, will be sung in English although it was originally written in Italian. "Why not?" Goldovsky explains. "Tell me how my students are going to learn to act and move around the stage if they are singing in a foreign language!" An additional benefit of the English-language performance is that the opera is easily comprehended by the English-speaking audience.

Goldovsky located the student-performers who attend the Institute through rigorous auditions around the country. Each leading role in Così fan tutte will be filled by several of them, in order to give as many students as possible actual stage experience.

Set in 18th-century Naples, Così fan tutte contains some of Mozart's most delightful music. The story of unfaithful lovers exposed with wicked delight by the scheming Don Alfonso was first performed in Vienna in January, 1970.

The opera's full title is Così fan tutte, ossia La Scuola degli Amanti. ("So do they all, or School for Lovers"). As Don Alfonso notes late in Act Two, "Women are women and in matters of love they all behave unpredictably." He is then joined in singing "... so do they all, so do they all" by forlorn soldiers Ferrando and Guglielmo, who have been betrayed by their ladyloves, Fiordiligi and Dorabella.

Massachusetts University on September 15. The performances, at 7:30 P.M. and 10 P.M., will be held in the SMU Auditorium.

Mann, one of a handful of musicians rooted in jazz who has also made a significant impact on pop music, has fashioned a stellar career out of expanding the definitions of jazz to include other diverse styles of music. He has visited many parts of the world -- Africa, South America, Europe, the Middle East, and Japan -- to find new musical sources and inspiration. He established a reputation in jazz circles in the fifties for his Afro-Cuban sound, and later helped popularize Brazilian Bossa Nova music here.

The 49-year-old flutist began playing the piano at the age of six, and later took up the clarinet and tenor saxophone. Only by chance did he become involved with the flute.

"I had been playing saxophone and clarinet in the Army band," Mann relates. "I got out of the Army in 1952, and a friend of mine told me about a Dutch accordionist, Matt Matthews, who was putting together a band. Matthews was looking for Sam Most, the only guy playing jazz flute at the time. My friend said to me, 'I told him Sam Most was out of town and you play jazz flute. Do you?'"

"I said, 'No, but don't tell him.' I told Matthews I could rehearse but that my flute was being repaired, so I'd have to learn the music on saxophone and clarinet. I'd go home every night and try to figure out what to do with the flute. I knew I'd be just another tenor saxophonist, but I was the first jazz flutist (with the exception of Sam Most, of course.)"

In 1957 Mann won his first of many Down Beat Magazine awards as the leading jazz flutist. In 1960, he visited Africa on a State Department tour, and the following year he toured South America with such jazz greats as Coleman Hawkins, Roy Eldridge, Al Cohn, and Zoot Sims.

Mann's most recent work has involved a reexamination of the Brazilian-influenced music he found years ago in South America. Critics have applauded the move. "For 80 minutes he gave a shockingly delightful performance," said the Cincinnati Enquirer last year. "Ideas popped from his instrument."

Calling Mann's music "continually interesting and fresh," Variety Magazine said, "At its best the music is exciting and swings using subtle rhythmic inflections as well as a lovely lyricism that derives from jazz and Latin music....Mann's contributions on flute and alto flute were outstanding."

Tickets for Mann's performance here, which is being sponsored by SMU Cultural Affairs and YMYS-FM, will go on sale August 1. They will be available at the following agencies: Uncle Ernie's Corner on the SMU campus, Billy Wood's Wharf, New Bedford; Music Headquarters, New Bedford; Chic's House of Drums, Fairhaven; Midland Records, North Dartmouth; and the Music Box, Fall River.

POLICE TRAINING OFFERED

Young men who are planning careers as police officers should look into the exceptional training program currently being offered by the Air National Guard.

Right now, according to Master Sergeant Dennis McGrevy, Recruiter for the Air Guard's 192nd Fighter Interceptor Group at Otis Air Force Base, high school graduates are being sought to enter the Security Police Training Program.

The Sergeant stated that "the training is tough, but the benefits are many! The Air National Guard not only pays the total cost of the training program, but we also pay the trainee an excellent salary, a $1500.00 enlistment bonus, provide free medical and dental care, life insurance, and a college tuition assistance program. It is an excellent way for the person who would like to become a police officer to gain valuable schooling and experience."

The Air National Guard is the prime reserve of the United States Air Force and the schooling is conducted at a U.S. Air Force facility. Upon completion of training, the security policeman would then be assigned to Otis Air Force Base, Massachusetts, where he would work on a part-time basis. This would consist of one weekend per month and a 15-day active duty period each year.

Those who are interested in becoming Air National Guard Security Policemen may obtain complete information, without obligation, by phoning Sergeant McGrevy at his Otis Air Force Base office. The phone number is 563-2150.

MATTAPOISETT JUNIOR LITTLE LEAGUE ALL STARS - LAKEVILLE TOURNAMENT

Coach Joe Frates' Little League Junior All Stars, ages 9 and 10, were eliminated after 2 tough losses in 3 games.

In the first game, timely hitting and an 11 strike-out effort by Joel Valladoa resulted in a 5 inning, 17 to 4 pasting of the Town of Easton's Junior All Stars.

The second game against a tough Whaling City Junior All Star club saw Carl Johnson hold the opposition at bay for a 1-0 lead until the 5th inning. Whaling City went on to a 5-1 decision after stymieing a rally with the bases loaded in the 6th inning.

The second loss was to the Town of Acushnet by a score of 5 to 3. Costly errors in the 1st inning cost Sean Reed a deserved victory as he pitched 6 strong innings in a losing effort.

The team MVP went to Joel Valladoa who pitched the first game, batted .428, and made some outstanding plays in the field.

Our congratulations go out to Joe Frates and his staff, and to the Junior All Stars for their fine effort and sportsmanship while representing Mattapoisett.

TOWN OF MATTAPoisETT, MASSACHUSETTS SEWER USE RATES

A. Billing periods coincide with Town Water Department billing periods, and are as follows: 1. April 1st to October 1st, 2., October 1st to April 1st.

B. SEWER RATE CHARGES:

1. Sewer Rate charges shall be based on metered water use and shall normally be assessed together with water charges on a single billing form.

2. Sewer use charges shall be assessed at One Hundred and forty-three percent (143%) of the water charges during each period, resulting in the following:

a. Minimum each 6-month period, charged at the beginning of each period shall be $21.45

b. Allowance during any one period shall be 3,000 cubic feet (22,440 gallons) of water at the minimum rate.

c. Excess (over 3,000 cubic feet of water) shall be billed at the termination of each period at the rate of $7.15 per 1,000
cu. ft.

C. The Board of Sewer Commissioners reserve the right to apply special rates where in their opinion unusual conditions warrant such action.

D. The entire minimum rate will be charged for sewer use for the billing period during which sewer connection is completed, regardless of time remaining in that period. Water meter reading will be recorded at the time of sewer connection and water use from that point only, to the end of the period will be used to determine whether or not charges for excess use are to be assessed.

NOTE: Sewer use rates are subject to change without notice.
